

Future Fund's O'Keeffe joins Fidante

FIDANTE PARTNERS
29 January 2018, Sydney

Fidante Partners has appointed John O'Keeffe as Head of Boutique Strategy and Business Management. John will play a critical role in determining the strategic direction of Fidante boutiques and identifying new investment capabilities.

John brings extensive experience in investment management, with a focus on debt and alternatives. He has been with the Future Fund, Australia's sovereign wealth fund, since 2009 in the role of Manager, Debt and Alternatives. Prior to the Future Fund, John had roles in London and New York with Fauchier Partners and GAM Investment Management.

Nick Hamilton, General Manager Fidante Partners said: "John has exceptional experience in fixed income and alternatives and investment management more broadly. He will play an important role in the growth and continued success of Fidante as we support and grow our current boutique partnerships and consider new partnerships and strategic opportunities."

John has a Masters of Applied Finance. He is also a chartered accountant and solicitor.

He starts at Fidante on 29 January 2018.
